Dear Dr. Burleigh:

I was very interested to see in the Kingston Historical Society's newsletter that you have published a book "Forgotten Pages of Local History". Knowing your reputation for being the authority in your area, I am sure the book must be fascinating and I would very much like to have a copy. Unfortunately the newsletter did not quote a price or where it could be purchased.

I have been hoping for some time to meet you at some Historical Society function to ask if you could help me in getting some information about Dr. R.D. Sutherland who lived in Bath in the mid-1800's. He was born 25 June 1816 and died in April 1968. He has a tombstone in the cemetery of the Cuyler family in Bath and also in Lonsdale banking. I have names and dates relating to the rest of the family but no detail of the part they played in the community. He was my husband's great grandfather.

I have not had the time to make proper inquiries, but I would appreciate it if you could make some suggestions of where I might start to look for information.

I look forward to information about purchasing your book, and also to an answer from you at your convenience about Dr. Sutherland.

Yours sincerely,

Katherine T. Ferguson

(Mrs. M. S. M. Ferguson).
